

Holiday Act

Foreword: The purpose of this document is to establish national holidays and their functions, how they are introduced, and the very first national holiday.

A. National Holidays

I. The definition of a holiday is a day marked by a general suspension of work in commemoration of an event.

II. National holidays would be just that; days where most places within the country would be closed. Government offices and practices like Congress would be closed on national holidays. These days should have significance to our countries' or the worlds' history or culture.

B. Process for New Holidays

I. New holidays shall be passed through Congress with a law, just like every other piece of legislation.

C. The First National Holiday

I. The first national holiday meets the criteria of having significance to both our countries' history and culture. It will be called King's Day.

II. King's Day will be held every April 25th. It celebrates the first birthday of the King of Oflen, Walker.

III. King's Day needs to be a national holiday so the people of the country and the government leaders can effectively celebrate such an important day.
